Maine Wesleyan Seminary and Female College.

HIS Institution has been in operation over fifty years. Its design is to afford to youth of both sexes an opportunity of acquiring a thorough education at the least possible expense. It presents the following courses and departments of study :—

- I. A Seminary Scientific Course.
- II. A Seminary Classical Course.
- III. A College Course for Ladies.
- IV. A Normal Course.
- V. A Department in Drawing and Painting.
- VI. A Commercial Department.
- VII. A Music Department.

To enter upon either of the above courses with a fair prospect of its successful completion within the specified time, the rudiments of a common English education should be previously acquired. Students will be admitted to any class in either of the courses for which they are qualified.

English Composition and Exercises in Reading and Vocal Culture in connection with all the above Courses.

It is not the design of the Trustees that the above courses of study shall be in all their details invariable.

Students who wish to study Greek can substitute this for the Modern Languages.

The Greek Course includes the following authors: The Anabasis of Xenophon, Homer's Iliad, Plato's Apology and Crito.

Other substitutions may in special cases be allowed, subject, however, to the advisement of the Faculty, who will allow no substitution which will essentially impair the completeness and discipline of the prescribed Course.

NORMAL COURSE.

The Course of Study includes the following branches, which are here given without reference to the order in which they may be taken up, or the length of time devoted to them.

Arithmetic (mental and written), Geography (physical, political, mathematical, together with map-drawing), English Grammar and Analysis, Reading, History of the United States, General History, Book-keeping, Drawing, and Vocal Music.

Algebra, Geometry, Astronomy, Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Geology, Botany, Natural History, Rhetoric, English Literature, Science of Government, Political Economy, Mental and Moral Philosophy.

Theory and Art of Teaching, General Principles and Methods of Instruction, School Organization and Government, and School Laws of Maine.

Lectures will be given, from time to time, on the various topics embraced in the Course.

Students contemplating an immediate entrance upon the work of teaching, who have not time to complete the above Course of Study, may take a Partial Course, and will receive such certificates as their attainments will authorize.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT.

The Course of Study in this Department aims to give a practical preparation for business life. Students will be expected to take sufficient time to acquire a thorough acquaintance with the following branches of study:

Arithmetic (mental and written), Geography (physical and political), English Grammar, U. S. History, Rhetoric, Science of Government, Political Economy, Natural Philosophy and Chemistry.

Penmanship, Drawing, Practical and Double-Entry Book-keeping, Commercial Correspondence, Business Forms, and Commercial Law.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC.

HIS Department has been thoroughly organized, and the studies are arranged for those who wish to acquire a Musical Education.

In order that no opportunity necessary to the most rapid progress of the pupils may be lacking, a Chorus and Anthem Class is formed each term; also an Elementary Singing Class.

GRADUATION.

DIPLOMAS will be given to all graduates.

Undergraduates who are obliged to leave before completing the Course will receive a certificate of standing in the branches pursued.

The degree of ARTIUM BACCALAUREA will be conferred on young ladies who have completed the College Course of Study, and passed a satisfactory examination in the same—provided they have been members of the Institution at least three terms. The degree of ARTIUM MAGISTRA will be conferred on graduates from the College Course of three years' standing.

LOCATION.

THE Institution is located upon Kent's Hill, in Readfield, four miles from the Readfield Station of the Maine Central Railroad. A carriage is always in readiness to convey passengers to the Hill, on the arrival of the cars at the depot.

For healthfulness, beauty of scenery, and freedom from vicious and disturbing influences, there is no better location for a school in New England.

 Post Office address, Kent's Hill, Me.

BUILDINGS.

THE Buildings are among the finest academic edifices in the country. They contain all accommodations necessary for boarding; also chapel, office, gymnasium, philosophical and chemical rooms, society rooms, and ten recitation rooms.

BOARD.

THE Boarding Department is under the charge of Hon. MOSES FRENCH. Most of the teachers board with the students, and no reasonable pains is spared for the comfort and improvement of the boarders.

No deduction will be made for absence the first or last week of the term. No student can be received into the school whose bills for the preceding term are unsettled.

Music and books are furnished at publishers' prices.

In the Commercial Department, blank books and stationery are furnished free of charge.

☞ Parents are earnestly requested not to allow their children to leave before the close of the term. Many of the most important lessons and experiments are given the last week.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Each Department of Instruction is under the care of a teacher whose exclusive attention is devoted to it, and all the classes are subjected to a thorough drill.

The Institution has a valuable Cabinet of Minerals, containing many rare and beautiful specimens, a supply of Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus, and an Engineer's and Surveyor's Transit.

Students preparing for College will find here every advantage they can desire.

A judicious and firm discipline is maintained, and a strong moral and religious influence is constantly exerted.

Careful attention is also given to Physical Culture; Gymnastics and Calisthenic exercises, and other healthful recreations, are provided for the students.

LITERARY SOCIETIES—LIBRARY.

THE CALLIOPEAN Society, which has been in successful operation over forty years, holds its meetings on Friday evening of each week. This Society has under its direction a Library of about two thousand volumes, to which all students have access by paying a small fee.

The ADELPHIAN, an interesting and successful Literary Society, is conducted by the Ladies of the Institution.

EXAMINATION AND EXHIBITION.

THERE will be an Examination at the close of each term, and an Exhibition and Commencement Exercises at the close of the Spring term.

Ladies who intend to enter the College Course will be examined for admission on the first day of the Fall term.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

A CERTIFICATE of good moral character is required of all who are admitted to the Institution.

All students are required to be punctual at their recitations, to attend to the regular exercises of Composition and Declamation, and to be present at all the public exercises of the school.

They are also required to attend public worship on the Sabbath, and at all times to maintain a correct and decorous deportment.

The use of tobacco is not allowed in the buildings, about the premises, or in the streets.

Cards and card-playing are prohibited.

No student who wilfully disregards any of the above regulations, or who is profane or intemperate, or whose influence is otherwise pernicious, will be allowed to remain in the Institution.

Each student is held responsible for damage done to his room or its furniture.

Students under age will not be permitted to leave before the close of the term, without written consent of parent or guardian.

Parents who have children in the Institution are requested not to allow them to be absent from the exercises of the school without consulting their Teachers.

CALENDAR.

THE Academic Year consists of three terms of thirteen weeks each.

The FALL TERM commences the second Monday of August.

The WINTER TERM, the last Monday of November.

The SPRING TERM, the second Monday of March.

Exhibition and Commencement Exercises the present year, June 3d, 4th and 5th.

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

In beauty and healthfulness of location, in thoroughness of scholarship, in strength of good moral influences, this institution is unsurpassed.

The Modern Languages, experimental Chemistry, special instruction in Elocution, and a wide range of Scientific studies, form a part of the regular College Course.

A well appointed Laboratory offers unusual facilities for the study of Chemistry. The Physical and Astronomical Apparatus is ample, including a twelve-inch refracting telescope, made by Alvan Clark; a spectroscope of high dispersive power, etc.

The Museum is arranged with reference to the wants of students, and is open to all. Special students in Natural History are allowed the use of specimens. The Zoölogical, Geological, Mineralogical, and Botanical collections are large and valuable.

The Library contains about 25,000 volumes, and is steadily increasing, from the income of a fund of $27,600. About 100 leading American and Foreign Periodicals are furnished in the Reading Room.

The Gymnasium is furnished with complete apparatus, heavy and light.

Expenses are very low, and no student of ordinary ability, tact, and energy, need fail to obtain a College education.

The officers of instruction and government employed in the different departments number one hundred.

The School of Theology is the oldest Theological Seminary of the Methodist Episcopal Church. All departments offer unusual advantages. All are open to both sexes on uniform terms and conditions.

No other city in America presents such varied facilities for general culture as Boston. Its Libraries, Museums, Art Collections, Lecture Courses, &c. &c., far surpass everything which any single College or University can ever hope to afford.

Students preparing for College can obtain information respecting the facilities provided at Boston, by addressing JOHN W. LINDSAY, S.T.D., Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, 20 Beacon St. Inquirers respecting other departments should in every case address the Dean of the College or School.

Copies of the University Year-Book, Vol. I., will be sent to applicants on receipt of three cents to prepay postage. Address D. PATTEN, Registrar, S.T.D., 20 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

BOWDOIN COLLEGE,

BRUNSWICK, MAINE.

HON. JOSHUA L. CHAMBERLAIN, LL.D., PRESIDENT.

The means of instruction at this College have recently been largely increased, so as to meet the wants of all classes of students. The following is the present organization.

1. The regular Classical Course : which is that pursued in the leading American Colleges.

2. The Scientific Course : which has been shaped to meet the demand of modern times, special prominence being given to the Natural and Physical Sciences and to Modern Languages.

3. A complete course in Engineering, Civil and Mechanical, affording the best facilities for theoretical and practical study.

4. Arrangements are now made for Post-Graduate studies, extending through two years, affording a substantial basis for technical and literary Professions. The following lines of advanced study are already provided for : 1st, Languages and English Literature ; 2d, Natural History ; 3d, Chemistry and its applications ; 4th, Engineering ; 5th, Constitutional Jurisprudence and Political Science.

5. The Medical School of Maine is connected with this College, and is in a flourishing condition.

6. Particular attention is given to Physical Culture, on hygienic principles, under the care of a competent instructor.

7. Instruction will be given in Military Science by an accomplished officer of the United States Army.

8. Special students, not candidates for a degree, will be received at any stage for which an examination shall show them to be fitted.

9. Graduates of other colleges, or others whose proficiency will warrant it, will be received into the Post-Graduate Course.

Further information will be given on application to the President, or to Professor S. J. YOUNG, Secretary.

BATES COLLEGE.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class are examined as follows:—

LATIN: In nine books of Virgil's Æneid, six orations of Cicero, the Catiline of Sallust, twenty exercises of Arnold's Latin Prose Composition, and in Harkness's Latin Grammar.

GREEK: In three books of Xenophon's Anabasis, two books of Homer's Iliad, and in Hadley's Greek Grammar.

MATHEMATICS: In Loomis's or Greenleaf's Arithmetic, in the first twelve chapters of Loomis's Algebra, and in two books of Geometry.

ENGLISH: In Mitchell's Ancient Geography, and in Worcester's Ancient History.

All candidates for advanced standing will be examined in the preparatory studies, and also in those previously pursued by the class they propose to enter, or in other studies equivalent to them.

Certificates of regular dismission will be required from those who have been members of other Colleges.

The regular examinations for admission to College take place on the second Saturday before Commencement, on Tuesday preceding Commencement, and on Wednesday preceding the first day of the Fall Term.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The regular Course of Instruction is that commended by the leading Colleges of the country as eminently adapted to secure liberal culture and a sound classical education.

EXPENSES.

The annual expenses are about $200. Pecuniary assistance, from the income of thirteen Scholarships, and various other benefactions, is rendered to those who are unable to meet their expenses otherwise.

Students contemplating the Christian ministry, receive assistance every year of the course.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.

This is a Department in the College, established by vote of the corporation, July 21, 1870. It occupies Nichols Hall, situated about a quarter of a mile from the College Buildings, and is in charge of a special Faculty appointed by the College Corporation.

Candidates for admission are required to furnish testimonials of good standing in some Christian church, and to give evidence of their duty to prepare for the gospel ministry, certified by the church of which they are members respectively, or by some ordained minister.

Those who are not graduates from College, previous to entering upon the regular course of study, must be prepared for examination in the common English branches, Natural Philosophy, Physiology, Chemistry, Geology, Astronomy, Algebra, and in the Latin and Greek languages.

Tuition, room rent, and use of libraries, free.

COMMENCEMENT is the last Wednesday but one in June.
